YALE MEN TELLS

Gumshoe Chief with a Retinue Has a Field Day in Norton Divorce.

(Special to The Evening World.)
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 28.—Louis day in the Norton divorce suit. Webb contracted to get evidence against Mrs. Norton at $5 a day, he declared, and was to receive $15 a day for all "operators" whom he hired to assist him! were engaged with him in gumshoeing after Mrs. Norton.

There was consternation on the Yale campus when it became known that Wedo, wills to testify, as he was reported to have the names of a score or more of prominent Yale men who, it is alleged, pave at one time or another enjoyed the society and acquaintance there was another crush of Yale men in court to-day.

Whenever Webb was asked to give names of the Yale students known he wrote them on a piece of paper, and they were eagerly scanned by the lawyers. Mrs. Norton and the Court, but carefully concealed from the spectators, reporters and especially the Yale men. Detective Webb, detailed various goings and comings of Mrs. Norton from her home in this city last March.

The witness also described other visits of George Jenkins, co-respondent in the case, in Mrs. Norton's rooms, which he observed through a keybole.
